

3rd IUCN World Conservation Congress
IUCN Commission on Environmental Law

Judiciary Day<sup>1</sup>
16th and 17th November 2004

Information for Speakers

Introduction to Sessions

Judges who will be introducing sessions are invited to make introductory remarks for up to five minutes to help set the scene for the session to follow.

Session Chairs

Judges who will be chairing sessions are invited to introduce the speakers, to manage the floor discussion for the session and to ensure the session runs to time, which is critical given the tight programme. Chairs are also invited to make closing remarks for up to five minutes and are requested to provide a written summary of the session by 30th November 2005 for inclusion in the published proceedings for Judiciary Day.

Keynote Speakers

Judges who will be delivering keynote speeches are invited to speak for 20-25 minutes. All key note speakers are requested to provide a written paper by 30th November 2005 for inclusion in the published proceedings for Judiciary Day.

Session Panellists

Session panellists, both judges and non judges, are invited to speak for up to ten minutes on their allocated topic. All panellists are requested to provide a written paper by 30th November 2005 for inclusion in the published proceedings for Judiciary Day.

Presenters on 16th November – Session 1

All presenters are invited to make a presentation for up to five minutes. All presenters are requested to provide a written paper by 30th November 2005 for inclusion in the published proceedings for Judiciary Day.

Judiciary Day Reception

All participants are invited to participate in the Judiciary Day Reception to be held at the Retro Cafe on 16th November. Refreshments and light snacks will be provided.

---

<sup>1</sup> For more information on the IUCN Environmental Law Programme or the Congress visit:
<http://www.iucn.org/themes/law/>

Conservation Forum and Business Assembly

Participants wishing to participate in events taking place after 17th November are reminded that they need to register themselves online for these events.

General Information

Commission lead: Justice Paul Stein AM

Secretariat lead: John Scanlon

Logistical focal point: Katerina Sarafidou (e-mail: Katerina.Sarafidou@iucn.org). Katerina will be assisted by Claudiane Chevalier.

Conference Languages: 16th November: English and Spanish, except for the concurrent sessions and the Judiciary Day Reception. 17th November: English, French and Spanish

Judiciary Day participants' hotel: Landmark Hotel (138 Sukhumvit Road, Bangkok 10110 Thailand, Tel: ++66 2254 0404, Fax: ++66 2253 4259)

Power Point: Available for all sessions, except the Judiciary Day Reception.. Presentations must be provided to the logistical focal point before the day of the session so that they can be loaded onto the central computer.

Papers: All written papers are to be sent to the logistical focal point by 30th November 2005 for inclusion in the published proceedings.

Publication of proceedings: The edited proceedings will be published in the IUCN Environmental Law and Policy Papers series. All sponsors and contributors will be properly acknowledged in the publication. Editorial work will be overseen by Justice Stein.

IUCN Website: <http://www.iucn.org>

IUCN Environmental Law Programme Website: <http://www.iucn.org/themes/law>

On-line Registration Link: <http://www.iucn.org/congress/general/registration.cfm>

Justice Paul Stein AM

Chair, Judiciary Specialist Group
IUCN Commission on Environmental Law

John Scanlon

Head, IUCN Environmental Law Programme
Director, IUCN Environmental Law Centre

IUCN Environmental Law Programme

October 2004